[XVIII*th* Year.] THURSDAY, November 4, 1762. [N°. 913.]

St. JAMES's, Auguſt 14.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, waited on his Majeſty, and being introduced to his Majeſty, by his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, made their Compliments in the following Addreſs, which was ſpoke by Sir William Moreton, Knight, the Recorder.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious SOVEREIGN,

WE your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to embrace this earlieſt Opportunity of congratulating your Majeſty, upon the ſafe and happy Delivery of the Queen, and the auſpicious Birth of a Prince.

So important an Event, and upon a Day ever ſacred to Liberty, and theſe Kingdoms, fills us with the moſt grateful Sentiments of the Divine Goodneſs, that has thus early crowned your Majeſty's domeſtic Happineſs, and opened to your People the agreeable Proſpect of Permanence and Stability to the Bleſſings they derive from the Wiſdom and Steadineſs of your Majeſty's victorious Reign.

May the ſame Gracious Providence ſoon reſtore your Majeſty's moſt amiable and beloved Conſort, and give perfect Health and Length of Days to the Royal Infant.

Long, very long, may your Majeſty live, the Guardian and Protector, the Ornament and Delight, of Great-Britain; and, by your Inſtructions and Example, form the Mind of your Royal Son to the Government of a free, brave, and generous People; and, in the Fulneſs of Time, may that Son ſucceed to the Virtues, as well as to the Throne of his Royal Father; and preſerve, for a long Succeſſion of Years, the Glory, Happineſs, and Proſperity of his Country.

Signed by Order of Court,

JAMES HODGES.

To which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to return the following moſt gracious Anſwer.

" I Receive, with the greateſt Pleaſure, theſe very affectionate Expreſſions of your Duty and Attachment to me and to my Family; and thank you for your Congratulation upon an Event ſo intereſting to me, and to the future Welfare of my People, with which my own Happineſs, upon this, and every other Occaſion, is inſeparably connected. The City of London may always depend upon my conſtant Favour and Protection."

They were received very graciouſly, and all had the Honour to kiſs his Majeſty's Hand.

Auguſt 17. Before the Court of Common Council were introduced to the King on Saturday, the Duke of Devonſhire came out to the Lord Mayor, and aſked if any of the Aldermen choſe to accept the Honour of Knighthood, but the Sheriffs having already received that Honour from his Majeſty, the other Aldermen (not already Knighted) deſired to decline it for the preſent. After the Court had preſented their Addreſs, and kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand, they were conducted through the Queen's Guard-Chamber, to a Room where there were great Quantities of Cake and Caudle, which when they had partaken of, they all paſſed thro' the Apartment, where they ſaw the young Prince lay in his Cradle of State.

Her Majeſty and the Prince continue in good Health.

HAGUE, Auguſt 3.

SOME Letters ſay, that the late Emperor of Ruſſia had declared his Intention to confine the Empreſs his Spouſe, before he ſet out to put himſelf at the Head of his Army in Germany.

Auguſt 4. There is certain Advice of the Death of the Emperor of Ruſſia, Peter III. eight Days after he had been deprived of his Throne; on which Occaſion the reigning Empreſs publiſhed the following Manifeſto.

" WE Catherine II. by the Grace of God, " Empreſs and Autocratrix of all the Ruſſias, &c.

" THE ſeventh Day after our Advancement to " the Throne of all the Ruſſias, we received the " News that the late Emperor Peter III. by an " hemorroidal Accident, to which he had been " ſome Time ſubject, was fallen into a moſt vio- " lent Cholic.

" Not to be wanting in our Chriſtian Duty, " and to the holy Commandment, by which we " are obliged to uſe our Endeavours to preſerve " the Life of our Neighbour, We immediately " ordered all the neceſſary Aſſiſtance to be ſent " him, to prevent the dangerous Conſequences of " this Accident, and to reſtore his Health by the " Aid of Medicine. But, to our great Regret and " Affliction, we received Yeſterday in the Evening " freſh Advice, that, by the Permiſſion of the Al- " mighty, he was deceaſed.

" Wherefore we have ordered his Corpſe to be " tranſported to the Monaſtery of Newſky, to be " there interred; and at the ſame time we excite " and exhort all our faithful Subjects, on our Im " perial and Maternal Word, to forget all the " Evil paſt, to render his Corpſe the laſt Honours, " and to pray to God for the Repoſe of his Soul, " looking at the ſame Time on this ſudden and " unexpected End as a particular Effect of Divine " Providence, who from impenetrable Views pre- " pares for us, for our Throne, and for all the " Country, Means only known to his holy Will.

" Done at Peterſburgh, July 7, 1762, O. S."

Berlin, July 27. General Seidlitz has routed the Army of the Empire, and made Priſoners a Major, a Captain of Horſe, four other Officers, and upwards of 300 Soldiers, and brought off a Number of Horſes, beſides the greateſt Part of their Equipage.

General Kleiſt has beaten an Auſtrian Corps in Bohemia, and made Priſoners 500 Men, amongſt them five Officers, and taken one Piece of Cannon. The Enemies are retiring to Auſſig.

Cologn, July 30. We this Moment receive Advice, that General Luckner has taken Fulda, and made the Garriſon Priſoners of War. This Loſs will be the more ſenſible to the French, becauſe they had in that Town a Quantity of Equipages, Baggage, and Proviſions of all Kinds.

Bettenbauſen, near Caſſel, July 29. There is no Doubt that the Allies propoſe to beſiege the Capital of this Country, after having inveſted it near five Weeks. The Commandant publiſhed throughout the City on Sunday Evening, that thoſe who ſhould be in the Streets after Nine at Night ſhould be arreſted, and that no Candles ſhould be lighted, in caſe any Alarm happened. The Subaltern Officers went on Monday from Houſe to Houſe, to take an Account of all Proviſions, Cattle and Forage, and at the ſame Time ordered all the upper Stories to be cleared, in order to lodge the Troops. All the Fruit-Trees are ordered to be cut down.

Paris, Auguſt 6. On the 31ſt paſt all the Ruſſians in this City took the Oaths to the new Empreſs Catherine, before Count Czernichew, the Ruſſian Ambaſſador, in his Chapel. This Miniſter, who was preparing to leave us without taking Leave, hath received new Credentials to reſide at this Court.

Cologn, Auguſt 3. All political Converſation turns wholly on the important Revolution that has juſt happened at Peterſburgh. Advices of good Credit aſſure us, that the principal Motives for depoſing the Emperor was the Diſregard he ſhewed to the Empreſs, for whom he openly diſcovered an Averſion, and the Aſſiduities he had long paid to a Sultaneſs. The Change he attempted to make in the Greek Religion, likewiſe contributed not a little to this ſudden Revolution. He wanted the Images and Pictures to be taken out of the Churches, and the Greek Prieſts to be dreſſed like the Lutherans. The Archbiſhop of Novogorod, whom he ſent for, told him what would be the Conſequence, if he perſiſted in his Reſolution. The Czar made Anſwer, that he would be obeyed; and that he alſo intended to open Lutheran Churches in Ruſſia. The Archbiſhop, who he baniſhed for eight Days, immediately acquainted his Brethren; and the whole Body of the Clergy was ſoon informed of what was in Agitation. The Clergy alarmed the People for their Religion; and the Alarm was the ſooner taken, as the Emperor had actually ſent for two able Lutheran Clergymen, to diſpute with and baffle the Greek Prieſts. Add to all this, the Czar's Imprudence, in throwing out a Hint that he intended to confine the Empreſs, before he ſet out for the Army, with which ſhe was ſoon acquainted. Nevertheleſs this Princeſs reſolved to have perſonal Conviction of the Deſigns that were forming againſt her. For this End ſhe took an Opportunity to ſay to the Emperor, that in caſe he ſhould leave Peterſburgh, he would place ſo much Confidence in her, as to appoint her Regent in his Abſence. The Manner in which he anſwered her, convinced her at once, that what ſhe had been told was not without Foundation. She immediately took her Reſolution to haſten the Execution of that Deſign, which was effected on the 9th paſt. After the Emperor was arreſted, the Mob, worked up by the Prieſts, called out to have the Emperor delivered to them, dead or alive, and the Crown placed on the Head of the Empreſs. As ſoon as her Majeſty was proclaimed, ſhe diſpatched Couriers to all the Courts of Europe, beginning with Vienna, then Warſaw, Verſailles, and Denmark.

LONDON,

Auguſt 5. In Conſequence of ſome Terms relating to a Peace, diſpatched from hence ſome Time ſince, it was Yeſterday very currently reported, that a Courier was arrived here, with an Anſwer from the Court of France: After which it is ſaid, the Preliminaries were agreed to, and even ſigned by the French King, by which all Canada, Guadaloupe, and Cape-Breton, were to remain in the Poſſeſſion of the Engliſh, to whom alſo would be given up the Iſland of Minorca, in Conſideration of their reſigning Martinico, Belleiſle, all the neutral Iſlands, Senegal and Goree, with the Liberty to fiſh off Newfoundland, and erect a proper Place there to cure their Fiſh.

By Letters from Gibraltar we have Advice, that the Differences between the Emperor of Morocco and our Court are entirely adjuſted, and that ſeveral Ships were going from Gibraltar to Arzu, to take in a Lading there of live Cattle.

A Change, it is ſaid, will ſoon take Place, that will be highly pleaſing to the Nation.

There is a current Talk that the Right Honourable Charles Townſhend, Eſq; Secretary of War, reſigns that important Poſt, and is to be Secretary of State in a new Department, to be inſtituted purely and ſolely for the Engliſh Dominions in all America.

We have it affirmed to us, that a Peace is much nearer than is generally expected.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, June 25.

" The 21ſt Inſtant, Admiral Saunders received Advice by an Expreſs, of the combined Fleets of France and Spain being at Carthagena; and in Half an Hour the Admiral's whole Fleet was under Way, and lie acroſs the Gut, in Hopes of meeting the Enemy."

Edinburgh (in Scotland) Auguſt 9. One of the Engliſh Papers ſays, that it was ſtrongly reported on Thurſday laſt, that his Grace the Duke of Bedford was ſhortly to ſet out for Paris, as Ambaſſador and Plenipotentiary to that Court, towards ſettling a General Peace.

It is ſaid the new Empreſs of Ruſſia has declared her Reſolution to obſerve a ſtrict Neutrality with all Europe.

The Scarborough Man of War is appointed Convoy to the Trade bound to North-America, and will ſail as ſoon as the Ships are ready.

Extract of a Letter from Gibraltar, July 16.

" Our vigilant Admiral is now cruizing in the Gut, with all his Line of Battle Ships; it blows a ſtrong Levant, and if the Enemy has a Mind to attempt to puſh through the Streights, they are ſure where to find him; but I think they will not dare to look us in the Face with their combined Fleet. All the Frigates of the Fleet are in Motion, moſt of them to the Eaſtward, waiting the Motions of the Enemy, who are in different Squadrons at Sea."

It is ſomething remarkable, that his Royal Highneſs was Born on the Anniverſary of his illuſtrious Family's Acceſſion to the Imperial Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and about the Hour of the Day on which that Succeſſion took Place; for Queen Anne died on a Sunday Morning, at about Half an Hour paſt Seven o'Clock, being the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1714, O. S. ſo that it is 48 Years, almoſt to a Minute, ſince George the Firſt acceeded to the Throne.

The eldeſt Son of the King of Great Britain is Born Duke of Cornwall, Duke of Rothſay, and Seneſchal or Steward of Scotland; and is upon his Birth-Day preſumed, and by Law taken, to be of full Age; ſo that he may that Day ſue for the Livery of that Dukedom, and ought of Right to obtain the ſame, as if he had been full 21 Years of Age. Afterwards he is Created Prince of Wales.

From the Day of his Birth he is commonly ſtiled the Prince of Wales, a Title firſt given by Edward the Firſt to his Son; for that King, after he reduced Wales, united it to the Crown of England; but perceiving the Welch uneaſy under the Rule of Strangers, he ſent Eleanor his Queen to Caernarvon Caſtle in North Wales, where, on the 25th of April, 1284, ſhe was delivered of a Son (which was the youngeſt of four of that King and Queen, but the only One that ſurvived) and then the King calling together the Barons of Wales, demanded if they would be content to ſubject themſelves to one of their own Natives, that could not ſpeak a Word of Engliſh, and againſt whoſe Life they could take no Exception; to which they readily conſented, and having ſworn to yield Obedience, he nominated this New-Born Son; whom, in his Charter dated the 24th of March, 1305, and the 33d Year of his Reign, he ſtiled Prince of Wales, being the firſt of the Sons and Heirs Apparent of the Kings of England, that bore that Title; and the King likewiſe beſtowed on him all the Lands, Honours and Revenues belonging to the ſaid Principality; ſince which Time, the eldeſt Son and Heir-Apparent of the King of England, has been ſtiled Prince of Wales.

The Welcome, Croſsthwayte, from Whitehaven to Virginia; Sally, Jordan, from Jamaica to Liverpool; Robert, White, from Virginia to Glaſgow; are taken by the Aurora Privateer, of Bayonne. The ſaid Privateer alſo took the Brig Morriſon, from Glaſgow to Virginia, and ranſomed her for 2500 Guineas.

BOSTON, October 18.

JOURNAL of the Expedition againſt ST. JOHN'S in NEWFOUNDLAND, commanded by the Right Hon. Alexander Lord Colvill by Sea, and Col. William Amherſt by Land, is as follows, viz.

AUGUST 16*th*, 1762.

COL. AMHERST ſail'd from New York with two Companies of Light Infantry formed from recovered Men of the different Corps that had been ſent to New-York from the Army in the Weſt-Indies; having Tranſports with him for the Troops he was to take with him from Halifax and Louiſburg, with great Plenty of Stores, and a fine Train of Artillery.

25*th*. Arrived at Halifax, and having embarked the Light Infantry and Grenadiers of the Royals, with three Companies of Montgomery's Highlanders, and 500 Provincials, he immediately proceeded to Louiſburg.

September 5*th*. Arrived at Louiſburg.

6*th*. In the Morning five compleat Companies of the 45th Regiment embarked.

7*th*. The whole Fleet ſailed out of Louiſburg Harbour.

8*th*. Lord COLVILL with his Squadron being cruzing before St. John's he received an Account from Col. Amherſt of his being at Halifax with a Body of Troops, and was to proceed to Louiſburg, and there take on board a Detachment of the 45th Regiment, and proceed to inveſt St. John's; on which Intelligence Lord Colvill immediately ſtationed himſelf about 4 Leagues to the Weſtward of the Harbour, and procured all the Shallops poſſible to be had, and put them under the Care of the ſeveral Ships of his Squadron, in Order to be ready to land the Troops on their Arrival.

Sept. 9*th*. A Cartel came out of St. John's for Halifax, who informed, that the Ships and Garriſon were determined to remain and oppoſe any Attempt that ſhould be made for the Reduction of that Place.

10*th*. Lord Colvill received Intelligence that Monſ. Tournay with his Squadron was determined to come out next Day, having on board the greateſt Part of the Garriſon; upon which his Lordſhip with his Squadron proceeded before the Harbour.

11*th*. About 7 o'Clock diſcovered 11 Sail in the S. W. which his Lordſhip ſteer'd for, and about 12 came up with the Ships, in which was Col. Amherſt and the Troops; the Night being almoſt Calm, made but little Way towards Torbay.

12*th*. Came to Anchor in Torbay.

13*th*. In the Morning the Army conſiſting of 900 Regulars and 500 Maſſachuſetts Provincials, made their Landing good, having little Oppoſition, and only three Men wounded; the Landing was covered by Capt. Douglaſs, who commanded his Majeſty's Ship Syrene. No ſooner was the Army Landed, than Col. Amherſt began his March for Kitty Vitty, about 9 Miles from Torbay, a Poſt abſolutely Neceſſary for the Army to take Poſſeſſion of, for Landing the Proviſions, Artillery, Stores, &c. The Army was a good deal harraſs'd in the March by different Parties of the Enemy, and the Badneſs of the Roads made the March very fatiguing. On the Army's arriving near Kitty Vitty, they found the Enemy amounting to about 300 Men in Poſſeſſion of this Poſt, and all the commanding Grounds: 'Tis naturally extremely ſtrong, being ſurrounded with high craggy Mountains cover'd with Rocks, which make it extremely difficult to Approach; yet it was reſolv'd immediately to diſlodge them, and the Light Troops having received their Orders for that Purpoſe, began the Attack with their uſual Bravery, and in leſs than half an Hour drove the Enemy from all their Poſts, [Here Capt. M'Kenzie was wounded.] Part of the Army took Poſſeſſion and ſecured the Entrance by Water to Kitty Vitty: The Army halted here all Night, and lay on their Arms.

Sept. 14. About 20 Shallops with Artillery, Stores, Proviſions, &c. ſailed from Torbay, and arrived ſafe to the Army at Kitty Vitty, about Three in the Afternoon. The Army having received two Days Proviſions, and ſuch Artillery and Ammunition as were immediately wanted, being landed, it was reſolved to attack the Enemy as ſoon as poſſible, who ſtill remained in Poſſeſſion of the Ridge of Mountains, that runs from Kitty Vitty to the Mouth of the Harbour of St. John's, and hangs over and commands the Fort. The Ships off St. John's covering the Landing of the Shallops.

15*th*. Half an Hour before Day break the Troops attacked the Enemy and drove them from the Ridge of Mountains, killed ſeveral of them, and took ſome Priſoners, among which was a Captain of Grenadiers, who was very much wounded. —Capt. McDonald that commanded a Company of Light Infantry, and Capt. Bailey of the Royals were both wounded, and Lieut. Schuyler killed — Moſt of this Night and Day it rain'd very hard and a high Wind from the E.S.E. which drove the Men of War off to Sea: At Six o'Clock in the Evening the Wind ſhifted to the Weſtward, but ſtill continu'd foggy, under which Cover the French Ships made their Eſcape out of the Harbour, cutting their Cables, and leaving Count Hoſſon De Ville, and all the Royal Marines, conſiſting of five Companies of Grenadiers: And that notwithſtanding there was a Party of 300 Men poſted at the Entrance of the Harbour, the Ships got out undiſcovered.

16*th*. The Army marched from Kitty Vitty in the Afternoon, to within a Mile of the Garriſon.

17*th*. Early this Morning a Detachment with a Working-Party was ſent to a convenient Hill near the Fort, to throw up an Entrenchment and make a Bomb Battery; about the Evening it was finiſh'd and at Half an Hour after 7 o'Clock the Eight Inch Mortar and about Eleven Cohorns began to play on the Town, and continued till 7 o'Clock in the Morning of the 18*th*. When an Officer with two Drums came out of the Fort beating the Chamade, and about Noon the Garriſon ſurrendered themſelves Priſoners of War:—Le Compte De Hoſſon Ville, and the other Officers and Men amounted to upwards of 700, among which were five Companies of Grenadiers.

19*th*. Lord Colvill, with Part of his Squadron, went into St. John's.

20*th*. The Reſt of the Ships with all the Tranſports got in, with three Ships of the Line and one Frigate who arrived the Night before from England, after a Paſſage of 6 Weeks and 3 Days, but ſaw nothing of the French Ships.

21*ſt*. Ships Wooding and Watering, and Tranſports getting ready to receive the French Garriſon, and about 60 more which were taken Priſoners during the Siege.

22*d*. Duty going on as before.

23*d*. His Majeſty's Ship Syren ſailed Expreſs for England, after being detained two Days by contrary Winds. This Day all the French Priſoners embark'd and would have ſail'd, but being little Wind could not get out.

24*th*. The Tranſports ſailed.

25*th*. His Majeſty's Ship Goſport ſailed for New-York, having all the Sick and Wounded, and 113 of the Troops from that Place, with a Tranſport, having the Remainder. In the Evening his Majeſty's Ship Enterprize arrived from the Havannah.

26*th*. The King George ſail'd, with a Tranſport, both of which having the Detachment of the 45th Regiment for Louiſburg; and by the 28th all the Troops of the ſeveral Corps were to embark for the different Stations, except 300 Regulars left to Garriſon St. John's. This Day Capt. M'Kenzey died of his Wounds.

October 3*d*. The King George arrived at Louiſburg, landed the Troops, and took on board 100 Provincials and landed them at Halifax the 10th.

The Killed, Wounded, and Miſſing of the Enemy was upwards of 100. That on our Side was about 20 Killed, and 25 Wounded.

The following Men of War arrived at St. John's from England, on the 20th of September, two Days after the Place ſurrendered, having been out ſix Weeks and three Days, viz.

Men of War.	Guns.	Commanders.
Shrewſbury	74	Capt. Palleſter

J. GREEN.

Talbot County, October 26, 1762.

Mr. GREEN,

HAVING read in your Paper of the 21ſt Inſtant, the melancholy Fate of a Child that died by the Bite of a mad Dog, I take the Liberty to ſend you ſome Extracts from Doctor Hillary's excellent Treatiſe on that Subject, as the Book is but lately publiſhed, and probably but in few Hands here as yet. If you can afford them a Place in your Paper, they may contribute to prevent the like dreadful Cataſtrophies hereafter. The Brevity neceſſary to be obſerved for a Publication in a News Paper, obliges me to omit the Doctor's Theory and Account of the Symptoms attending this Diſeaſe in i'ts various Stages, and to confine myſelf to his Method of Cure only, which conſiſts of two Parts, the Prophylactic and Therapeutic; the Prophylactic, is that whereby the Hydrophobia, and other fatal Symptoms are prevented from coming on, and the Therapeutic, that Method whereby they are carried off, when they do appear. In the Prophylactic, or Preventive Method, as ſoon as any Perſon is known to have been Bit by a mad Animal, he directs the bitten Part to be cut out, the Place to be Cupped, and the Sore to be cauteriſed all round the Edges and Bottom, if it can be done with Safety; but if not, he orders to be ſcarrified and cupped, then waſhed every Day with Salt Water and Vinegar, and kept open with gentle Eſcharoticks, a conſiderable Time. Then if the Patient is Plethorick, he orders Bleeding, and a Vomit if the Stomach is foul, and the following Bolus at Bed-time, with Directions to encourage moderate Sweating, by drinking warm Wine Whey. ℞ Moſch. oriental. gr. xvi. Cinnabar. nativ. levigat. gr. 30 vel 40 Pil. ſaponac. gr. viii. Camphor. gr. vi. Balſ. Peru. q. ſ. ut f. Bolus. The next Morning, he orders an Antiphlogiſtic Purge, and at Night, directs the Patient to be plunged over Head and Ears in cold Water, to be kept under it ſome Time, and this repeatedly for three or four Times, then to take him out, rub him dry, and putting him in a warm Bed give him another Bolus, and let him drink after it Half a Pint of an Infuſion of Rad. Valerian. Sylv. & Cort. Saſſafras. and as much warm Whey as he pleaſes. He prefers Salt or Sea Water to Freſh, for the Bath. The Bathing, Bolus and Infuſion, he directs to be repeated for three or four Evenings ſucceſſively, and the ſame again for three or four Nights, at the next Full and Change.

But if the Phyſician is not called in 'till after the Hydrophobia, and other ill Symptoms are come on, from the Neglect of the above preventive Method; he then directs the Patient to be bled copiouſly, almoſt to Fainting, two Hours after which, to be plunged, as above, in cold Water, and kept under it, 'till almoſt Drowned, after which to put him to a warm Bed, and give him the following Bolus: ℞ Theriac. Andromach. ʒſs. Moſch. gr. xvi. Pil. ſaponac. & Sal Succin. ana gr. x. Camphor. gr. viii. Ol. Menth. gtt. 1 Syrup. & Mecon. q. ſ. ut f. Bolus. As ſoon as this Bolus begins to relieve the Patient, ſo that he can drink any Thing, give him the above Infuſion, and the Wine Whey. If a breathing Sweat enſues, continue it 48 Hours, and repeat the Bolus thrice in that Time. After which he orders an Antiphlogiſtic Purge, and another Bolus the Evening after it. He adds ſeveral very remarkable Caſes, where the Hydrophobia, &c. was manifeſtly prevented by this Prophylactic, or carried off by the Therapeutic Method of Cure, but as they are too tedious to be mentioned here, I ſhall refer to the Author himſelf, and conclude with a Remark of an eminent French Surgeon, whereby to diſtinguiſh whether a Dog that had bitten any Perſon, had really the Rabies or not; and that is, if he is killed (as is generally the Caſe when they do any Miſchief) to rub a Piece of Meat in the Saliva round his Chops, and then offer it to another Dog, and if the ſuſpected One was really Mad, the other will not touch the Meat, but run away from it Howling. I am, SIR, Yours,

PHILANTHROPOS.

The following is from another Hand.

THE Hydrophobia is the laſt and moſt dreadful Stage in Perſons bit by a mad Dog, or other Animals that are affected with the Rabies, tho' it has been found by Experience that Bleeding ad Delequium, or 'till the Patient faints, carries off that moſt dreadful Symptom: Upon the Patient's becoming more Plethoric, or his Veſſels filling again with Blood, the Dread of Water, or Hydrophobia, has recurred even to the third Time, and he has been at laſt perfectly recovered by being let blood, 'till he fainted each Time thoſe Symptoms came on.

Doctor James, Author of the famous Powders againſt Fevers, has diſcovered, that any Preparation of Mercury is an Antidote to the Poiſon of a mad Dog. But he told me, he thought the beſt Preparation of Mercury, for internal Uſe, was the Turbeth mineral, or Mercurius emeticus flavus; he directs likewiſe that the Wound ſhould be ſcarrified, and dreſt daily, for 10 Days, or a Fortnight, with Mercurial Ointment. *R.
